Dear Members,

Invitation to Networking & Sharing Luncheon on 7 November 2026

The HKDA Young Dentists Group (YDG) is delighted to invite you to our upcoming Networking & Sharing Luncheon, which will combine Chinese banquet dining, professional sharing, and valuable networking opportunities for our members.

Date: 7 November 2026 (Saturday)

Time: 13:00 - 15:00 (Registration starts at 12:30)

Venue: Fung Shui Room 6/F Marco Polo Hongkong Hotel
(Address: 3 Canton Road, Harbour City, Tsim Sha Tsui, Kowloon)

The luncheon will feature a professional sharing of approximately 30-45 minutes, with the following details:

Topic: The Art, Culture, and Clinical Excellence of Dental Jewelry

Speaker: Dr Jason WU

Abstract (as provided by the speaker):

Join Dr. Jason Wu, a graduate of the Bachelor of Dental Surgery class of 2012 who now works in private practice, for an eye-opening session into the rapidly growing world of grillz and tooth gems. While dental jewelry has rooted histories in hip-hop and global pop culture, it is exploding across Asia today. Yet, the vast majority is still produced by jewelers and independent artists—not dentists. Anything attached to teeth should be our specialty, yet many clinicians remain unfamiliar with these trends. This session bridges that gap. For Dr. Wu, grillz and tooth gems are a unique art form, blending creative design with precise science. We will examine the history and cultural impact of these custom tooth adornments, dissect the clinical flaws of traditional jeweler-made pieces, and explore the advanced techniques, safe materials, and professional workflows he has developed using dentistry-first principles. Gain valuable insight into this alternative work being done on teeth around the world, protect patient oral health, and upgrade your clinical knowledge to meet modern patient trends.
